

UW DEPARTMENT OF PEDIATRICS

5 MOST SCHOLARLY CONTRIBUTIONS INSTRUCTIONS

OBJECTIVE

To showcase your 5 most significant scholarly contributions to your field.

GENERAL

Five (5) most significant scholarly contributions are required for all mandatory and non-mandatory promotion packets.

Significant scholarly contributions may include publications that are of high-quality, high-impact, data-based and/or peer-reviewed areas relevant to the faculty member's focus. These scholarly contributions may have emphasis in the candidate's background, study, or area of interest.

These five (5) most significant scholarly contributions must be identified with an asterisk (*) on the faculty member's CV.

Submit the Title Page in Word and provide each of the five (5) reprints separately as PDFs.

INSTRUCTIONS

- Confirm asterisks (*) on CV match the faculty member's five most scholarly contribution prints prior to submitting to Faculty Affairs.
- Complete and email the Title Page template, listing the five (5) scholarly contributions in chronological order (oldest to newest) in Word format to UWPedsFA@seattlechildrens.org.
- Email each of the five (5) reprints separately in PDF format to UWPedsFA@seattlechildrens.org.
- Please notify Faculty Affairs of any changes/updates to a faculty member's scholarly contributions.
 - Any updates to the five most scholarly contributions should include a copy of the print in PDF format as well as an updated CV with revised asterisks (*).
 - Please update the Title Page document and indicate to Faculty Affairs which scholarly article(s) are to be replaced.
